

Cloud Dancer Collection

CARVANSONS

Pantone has named Cloud Dancer as its Colour of the Year for 2026. This creamy white colour reflects a desire for calm, clarity and fresh starts, offering “a calming influence” and a blank-canvas backdrop for creativity, design and self-expression.

Fragrances linked to this colour and sentiment are likely to resonate with consumers over the next 12 months. Searches for “milk perfumes” have tripled in the last 2 years, driven by social-media interest and influencer exposure.

The Cloud Dancer Collection is a collection of six fragrances created to embody the Pantone Colour of the Year.

These scents have been created and selected for their airy, light or creamy scent directions and lean into the trend for skin-scents, lactonic notes and decadent gourmands.

The collection features scents with soft and gentle scents, musky, milky or vanilla notes.
